COURSE OVERVIEW

The Operations Manager Apprenticeship Training Course has been designed for learners who currently manage teams and/or projects and are looking to develop their managerial skills in their current role.

Many employers who work with use utilise this course to identify and train the future leaders within their business, nurturing their current leadership strengths while also honing their skills with an underpinning of management and strategic business theory.

Who Can Enrol On This Course?

This course is available to those who have not already completed a similar Operations Manager qualification. The course is best suited for those who already manage, or who are about to take on managing a team of people.

- Be aged 16 or over (although please note this is an advanced course.)
- Have a good grasp of Maths and English, ideally to a Level 2 standard.
- Be already in, or taking on, a leadership role or have key responsibilities in this area, as part of their day-to-day duties.

You may use this apprenticeship to train a new member of staff, or an existing employee.

COURSE FUNDING

The overall value of this training is £9,000, however at NTG Training we can access apprenticeship funding from the government meaning most businesses will only pay 5% of the training fees at:

£450

95% Funding From The Government

All businesses that do not pay the Apprenticeships Levy will only need to pay 5% of the total training fees. We call this an 'Employer Contribution'.

100% Funding for Enrolling Apprentices Aged 16 to 21

If your apprentice is 16 - 21 years old and your business has a payroll bill of less than £3 million, the government will fund your apprenticeship training 100%

Have a Payroll Bill Over £3mil? Access Your Apprenticeships Levy Pot

Businesses who operate with a payroll bill over £3 Million are required to pay a levy which allocates funds to a pot for apprenticeship training. Ask us for more advice on utilising this.
